A special invitation from Chris

When the winds are howling, the temperatures freezing, and snow is all around, have you ever just wanted to pack up and leave it all behind for awhile for warm sunny days, white sand beaches, fun and new friends? Well, NOW YOU HAVE THE CHANCE.

In my many travels this year doing site inspections, I have found a great place to do just that directly on the Gulf of Mexico in St. Petersburg Beach, Florida. I would personally like to invite you to spend 3 weeks with us at the TradeWinds Sandpiper Suites on the beautiful white sand beaches of the Gulf of Mexico.

Check out the sidebar and see what is all included for a great price.

We have weekly planned activities and optional side trips. Transportation for tour manager -planned activities within St. Petersburg Beach is included in the tour cost. The TradeWinds Sandpiper Suites and it sister property, the TradeWinds Island Grand Resort, are located almost next door to each other, and while staying at the TradeWinds Sandpiper, the amenities of the TradeWinds Island Grand Resort are also available to you.

A variety of room options and prices are available from standard rooms with wet bar area with refrigerator, microwave, coffee maker, and toaster to courtyard or gulf front suites with separate private bedroom areas, kitchenettes, and dining and living areas. All guest accommodations are non-smoking and have high-efficiency air filters.

Bus stops are located at the entrance to both resorts and serve the county bus lines and Beach Trolley, a fun open-air tram that runs 23 miles along Gulf Boulevard to shopping areas, restaurants and other points of interest. Great restaurants are located in both resorts and just down the street. Oh yes, did I mention Starbucks' coffee in the lobby?

I can vouch for the friendly smiles and polished services of the staff at both properties that make you feel right at home. And, of course, your professional tour manager from our company will be with you the whole time from departure to return. Sound too good to be true? IT IS TRUE AND CAN BE TRUE FOR YOU!

To check out the properties, go to www.justletgo.com and check it out for yourself. Check out our website at www.americanclassictours.com.

Make your reservations early to take advantage of the $100 per person early bird discount and remember you can get a 100% refund up to November 15th. We hope that you will have such a great time that you will want to make this Florida Snowbird trip a yearly event with us. Call or come by our office today and reserve your room or suite on the white sand beaches of the Gulf of Mexico.

Come on along and join our travel family and see how we roll out the red carpet and make you the STAR.

Sincerely,
Chris Sollers, Owner
