THE 54th ANNUAL
NATIONAL QUARTET CONVENTION
(Singing – Sweets – Shows)

Day 1 – A breakfast snack and drink are provided this morning as we depart for Louisville, KY. Lunch is on your own today. Our first stop on arriving in Louisville, KY this afternoon is Schimpff's Confectionery and Candy Factory. We visit the Candy Kitchen and Candy Museum. Watch candy being made on century-old equipment and enjoy browsing amidst thousands of pieces of American candy memorabilia. We also visit the Chocolate Dipping Room. Then we check into our hotel and freshen up a bit before driving over to attend the National Quartet Convention in Freedom Hall at the Kentucky Expo Center. The evening meal is on your own in the food court area at the Kentucky Expo Center, after which we enjoy an evening of Southern Gospel Music. Hosts for this evening's convention are Dean and Kim Hopper. Some of the groups scheduled to sing this year are The Booth Brothers, Brian Free & Assurance, Dixie Echoes, Dove Brothers, Kingdom Heirs, Kingsmen, King's Heralds, Mark Bishop, Mark Trammell Quartet, Pfeifers, Primitives, Rambos, Talleys, Triumphant QT, Voices of Lee, Whisnants. (Schedule subject to change)

Day 2 – Sleep in a little this morning after our late arrival back at the hotel the night before. Breakfast is included at the hotel this morning. After breakfast, relax and enjoy the hotel amenities in the hotel's holidome recreational area. Lunch is on your own before we stop in downtown Louisville to attend The Kentucky Show at the Center for the Arts. This show explores Kentucky's unique heritage and famous traditions. After the show, we begin our journey home with the great gospel music sounds still fresh in our memories. (B)
