

(Broadway Theater District)

July 11 - 17
7 days

$1,715 – Double
$2,649 – Single
Deposit - $100

Tour Includes:

- 9 Meals
- Deluxe Motor Coach
- Professional Tour Escort
- All Included Sightseeing and Admission Fees
- Accommodations
- Luggage Handling

Plus:

- Four Nights in New York City
- New York City Tour
- Fifth Avenue
- Broadway Joe’s Steakhouse
- Times Square
- Chinatown
- Ground Zero
- United Nations
- Empire State Building
- Trump Towers
- St. Patrick’s Cathedral
- Rockefeller Center
- Today Show or CBS Morning Show
- Central Park-“Strawberry Fields”
- Tavern on the Green
- Ellis Island
- Statue of Liberty
- Surprise Farewell Dinner

(The Metropolitan Museum of Art)

☆☆☆☆☆
JUST NEW YORK CITY
“The Big Apple”

(Statue of Liberty)

(Central Park)

Day 1 – Today we journey eastward through Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio as we meet new friends and talk about the tour ahead to the “Big Apple”. You may have time to see a Broadway Show or two while in New York City. Our hotel is in mid-Manhattan and close to the theaters, restaurants, and famous stores. Your Professional Tour Escort will be happy to assist you in arranging for theater tickets. Tonight, our accommodations await us in Ohio.

Day 2- After an included breakfast, we continue on toward New York City, arriving in late afternoon. We check into our hotel in Midtown Manhattan. The Hotel will be our “home away from home” for the next four nights. (B)

Day 3- Our local guide joins us this morning for a city tour including Times Square, Chinatown, Financial District, Lincoln Center, United Nations Building, Empire State Building, Rockefeller Center, Ground Zero, St. Patrick’s Cathedral, Trump Towers, and much more. This afternoon is free to explore, on your own, the many shops, stores, and restaurants. Lunch is on our own today. Stroll along 5th Avenue or visit Macy’s, Saks Fifth Avenue, Bloomingdales, or take in a matinee performance at a Broadway Show. Dinner is included tonight at Broadway Joe’s Steakhouse. (B D)

Day 4- If you arise early enough this morning, you may have time to see the “Today Show” or “The CBS Morning Show” from the street just outside their studio. Who knows, you might get on television. Later in the morning we visit Central Park and see Strawberry Fields” and have lunch at Tavern on the Green, a well-known Manhattan restaurant famous for its great food. This afternoon and evening are free to shop, browse, explore, take in a Broadway show, and have dinner. A great place to explore on your own is “The Met”, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, which has something to please everyone, with its newest exhibits and displays. (B L)

Day 5- After an included breakfast, we spend the morning and afternoon at the newly restored Ellis Island, where a new life began for many fellow countrymen. We will also see the Statue of Liberty and Museum. See her glisten as she stands proudly in her second century of service and honor representing the hopes of freedom for us all. We return to our hotel in late afternoon. Dinner is on our own tonight. (B)

Day 6- All too quickly, our visit to the “Big Apple” comes to an end, as we board our deluxe motor coach and leave the “City That Never Sleeps”. Tonight we have a special surprise for our included farewell dinner activity together. (B D)

Day 7- After an included breakfast, we begin our journey toward home as the sights, sounds, and memories of Just New York City dances in our heads. We will have lots to tell our friends back home! (B)

(Bloomingdale’s)

(Saks Fifth Avenue)